Baptist Collegiate Ministry	scott@ullbcm.com	WHAT IS THE BCM? The Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM) exists to help students know Christ and grow in their faith through Bible study, worship, fellowship, missions, and much more. We desire to reach students for Christ, connect them with other believers (here in Lafayette and around the world), and strengthen both their personal relationship with Christ and the church. We want to serve you, however, whenever, and whatever you need – no strings attached. We believe God has called us to live everyday in loving service to those around us, and we also believe that he is changing us into people who desire to love more and more all the time. DO I HAVE TO BE BAPTIST? This is a question we hear frequently. And the answer is NO, you do not have to be Baptist to be a part of the BCM. We welcome all regardless of their denominational preference or faith! We are supported by the Louisiana Baptist Convention and area Southern Baptist churches and affirm Baptist doctrine and theology, but anyone and everyone can be involved at the BCM. We have Baptists, Presbyterians, Non-Denominationalists, Atheists, Muslims, Internationals, and more so its a pretty good bet you’ll find a place with us here. WHAT DOES THE BCM OFFER? We offer everyone a free lunch on Wednesdays at noon every regular week of the semester. We have a worship service Tuesday nights in the Honors Forum in the Student union at 6. We take hiking trips, play soccer, basketball, football, ping pong and any other sport you can think of, as well as, go to conferences, have pool parties and fellowships at Scott’s house, bible studies, small groups, and	Mrs. Debbie Savoie	scott@ullbcm.com	www.ullbcm.com	Allison Credeur	alc7751@louisiana.edu	Lori Fields	lcf5361@louisiana.edu

Psi Chi: The International Honor Society in Psychology ULL Chapter	ulpsychology@yahoo.com	Psi Chi is the International Honor Society in Psychology, founded in 1929 for the purposes of encouraging, stimulating, and maintaining excellence in scholarship, and advancing the science of psychology. Membership is open to graduate and undergraduate men and women who are making the study of psychology one of their major interests, and who meet the minimum qualifications. Psi Chi is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies and is an affiliate of the American Psychological Association (APA) and the Association for Psychological Science (APS). Psi Chi serves two major goals—one immediate and visibly rewarding to the individual member, the other slower and more difficult to accomplish, but offering greater rewards in the long run. The first of these is the Society's obligation to provide academic recognition to its inductees by the mere fact of membership. The second goal is the obligation of each of the Society's local chapters to nurture the spark of that accomplishment by offering a climate congenial to members' creative development. Sigma Alpha Epsilon	laalpha@live.com	The Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity was founded March 9, 1856, at the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa. Its founders were eight young men, five of them seniors at the university; the other three were juniors. Founded in a time of intense sectional feeling, SAE confined its growth to the southern states. Extension was vigorous, however, and by the end of 1857, the fraternity numbered seven chapters. The mission of Sigma Alpha Epsilon is to promote the highest standards of friendship, scholarship, and service for our members based upon the ideals set forth by our Founders and as specifically enunciated in our creed (The True Gentleman). The True Gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others, rather than his own; and who	Steve Giambrone	sxg0856@louisiana.edu		Will Littlepage	wcl5500@louisiana.edu	David Harrison	dah1623@louisiana.edu
